“A Few of My Favorite Things...Sharlot Hall Museum Artifacts”

Speaker – Kylin Cummings

Did you know on average only 1-5% of museum artifacts are on exhibit at any given time? The Sharlot Hall Museum is no exception. That means approximately 95% of their collection is located in storage.

Let’s take a peek at some of the hidden treasures seen only by a few before now.

Curator of Collections at the Sharlot Hall Museum, Kylin is currently directing the Museum’s first ever full inventory of its 3D object collections. She holds a Bachelor’s degree in Geoscience from Virginia Tech and a Master’s in Anthropology with an emphasis in Museum Studies from New Mexico State University.

Prescott Corral News & Announcements

A Message from Our Sheriff

Howdy, Cowpokes!

The combined August Corral Dinner and the 14th Annual Western History Symposium are less than two months away. Please note this will be Saturday, August 5th. There will be no Thursday Dinner Meeting.

The lectures begin at 9:30 AM and last until about 4:00 PM. A lunch of grilled burgers and hot dogs will be available for purchase. The Symposium is open to the public at no charge.

Beginning about 4:00 PM, our friends from the Centennial Center will transform the room into a dining room. This dinner will be sold out and reservations are absolutely required. NO WALK-INS. The enclosed Symposium information card includes information on making dinner reservations.

Happy Trails,

Bernard
