PHOTO AND MAP CREDITS

Photographs in this publication were provided courtesy of the following organizations: The Sharlot Hall Museum (cover and pages 1,7 and 10); The Arizona Historical Society (page 12); the Show Low Historical Society and Museum (pages 17 and 20); and Arizona State Library and Archives (page 2). The map on page 3 was drawn by Tom Jonas. The cover layouts were provided by Huff Graphic Design. The Thumb Butte scene on the back cover and the illustrations on pages 13 and 22 were sketched by Bruce Fee.

Cover Photo: The Yavapai County Courthouse in Prescott, Arizona, circa 1880s. This brick Courthouse was constructed on the plaza as a replacement for the 1867 Courthouse located on Cortez Street (shown on page 10). As was the case of its predecessor, it housed courtrooms, the Sheriff's office and the County jail. It, in turn, was replaced in 1918 by the granite structure which stands on the Courthouse Plaza and to this day serves as the Courthouse for Yavapai County.
