Cover Photo: Downtown Prescott has a new memorial recognizing the group of explorers who founded the "Pioneer Mining District," in 1863. This event led directly to the founding of Prescott less than a year later. The memorial plaque was provided by the Prescott Corral of Westerners International and is located at the mid-block pedestrian crosswalk on Montezuma Street on the west side of the courthouse plaza. Bruce Fee and Gary Melvin designed the composite photograph. Text of the plaque begins at page 14.
