Babbitt (pages i, 3 and 7); Tom Jonas (map page 2); the Linda Kowall Wool Collection shared by David Lindbloom (pages 8, 10 and 13); Gary Melvin (pages 14 and 30); Don Bufkin maps from Historical Atlas of Arizona (pages 24, 26 and 28); photo from World's Oldest Rodeo (page 30).

John Huff Designs prepared the front cover layout.

Cover Photo: An undated postcard view of the historic Gadsden Hotel in Douglas, Arizona. Located within a mile of the United States' border with Mexico the hotel is named in honor of James Gadsden who had much to do with establishing that border. It is renowned for its ornate two-story lobby and broad marble staircase. Originally opened in 1905, much of the structure was destroyed by fire and rebuilt in 1920.
