“The History of the Prescott Fire Department:
1885 to the Here and Now”

Presenter: Conrad Jackson

Learn how the Prescott Fire Department came to be established, why it changed from a volunteer department to a paid one, and background on the impactful fires that our community has endured. Conrad’s historical journey includes photos and stories beginning in the 1800’s depicting the department’s 137-year history.

Conrad Jackson has spent 28 years in the fire service, 20 of them as a firefighter with the Prescott Fire Department. While serving on the PFD, he wrote his book about the department’s history which secured him the role as its historian. Recently retired, he achieved his goal of over 10,000 responses with the PFD.

Prescott Corral News & Announcements

A Message from Our Sheriff

Howdy Fellow Westerners,

Thank you to all who have renewed your membership to our Corral. This month we are distributing our “Final Notice”. We realize that many of you will have renewed by the time you get this Roundup. If you have, there is no need to contact our “Keeper of the Chips” again.

As I mentioned at our January dinner, please consider getting your Roundups delivered to your email. We will have a sign-up list at our meeting and will begin with the emailing of the March Roundups.

Deputy Sheriff Shelly Dannatt and I met with the Director of the Phippen Museum in January. This was the first step in planning our August 5, 2023 Symposium. We are looking forward to another full day of exceptional speakers.

In the past, we asked Western History Symposium attendees to give us their email addresses so that we could continue to communicate with them. Recently, we emailed previous non-Corral attendees (whose email addresses we could read) with the date and location for our upcoming Symposium along with a copy of the Roundup and a Corral brochure.

I am pleased to announce that the Sharlot Hall Museum will again join our Corral in presenting the Sharlot Hall Award. It will be given to a well-deserving candidate (to be selected by the Sharlot Hall Museum) at our November dinner meeting. This award has a 38-year history of being presented to a living Arizona woman for her valuable contributions to the understanding and awareness of Arizona and its history. Some previous awardees are current Corral members or were past members.

We are fortunate to have many members with unique lives and professions. Several have made presentations to our Corral. We have historians, researchers, authors, directors of local western museums and institutions and community leaders. I hesitate to name them because I might leave someone off the list which I would hate to do. We truly follow our mission to promote and preserve the history of the West.

Happy trails to you, until we meet again!

Kathy Mancino
