“Big Nose Kate Reflects on Her Life”

Presenter: Linda Walls

Big Nose Kate was well known in Territorial Arizona. She traveled with Doc Holliday and the Earp family. Ultimately, she led a full and interesting life. Come hear Kate, in her later years, as she reminisces about her life.

Linda Walls is a member of the Elks Opera House Guild. She was born in Minnesota, but moved to Phoenix, Arizona as a young girl. After college and working at the US Postal Service in California, she moved to Prescott in 2002. Her love of history, especially Arizona history, drew her to research and later to present Big Nose Kate and the story of her life.

Prescott Corral News & Announcements

A Message from Our Sheriff

Howdy and happy soon-to-be Spring to all Corral Members!

Hooray! Our Corral now has a Deputy Sheriff-Penny Morrison! She was “deputized” at our February meeting. We appreciate her enthusiastically joining the Posse! Welcome aboard, Penny!

Besides welcoming Penny, we also welcome a number of new members. Be sure to extend a warm greeting to them.

No doubt you have noticed our monthly presentations are once again being videotaped. We appreciate Erin O’Gorman’s efforts for these recordings.

If you attended both the January and February meetings you know that member Paul Tulleners won the 50/50 drawing both months! And, both months he donated his prize money to the Prescott Western Heritage Center. Such a generous gesture, Paul!

Another donation that you’ll notice in the mailed Roundups is the larger return envelopes preprinted with our Corral address. We thank member John Rush for donating 1000 of these larger envelopes! Certainly appreciate that, John!

We continue to confirm speakers for our 2024 Western History Symposium at the Phippen Museum. Be sure to mark Saturday, August 3 on your calendars!

We extend sincere sympathy to Corral member Bob Reichmuth with the passing of his wife, Barb. She will be missed at our monthly meetings.

I’m sure you’re looking forward to joining “Big Nose Kate” at our meeting in April! ☺

See you in April!

Sheriff Shelly
