“Patent Medicine-A Cure for Everything”

Presenter: Bob Harner

More than showmen selling “snake oil” from medicine show wagons, patent medicines were major businesses producing questionable “medications” and buying thousands of dollars in advertising. Come hear about entrepreneurs who created, promoted, and grew wealthy from products that offered little benefit to people who purchased them.

Bob Harner is a retired Instructional Designer who created corporate training videos and online courses for such clients as Walt Disney, Ikea, Bank of America and Coca-Cola. A collector of patent medicine memorabilia, he volunteers at the Sharlot Hall Museum (serving on the Board of Trustees) and occasionally writes Western history articles for The Daily Courier.

Prescott Corral News & Announcements

A Message from Our Sheriff

Happy Summer wishes to Prescott Corral Members!

Hopefully, you were in attendance at our May 2nd meeting when long-time Corral member, Fred Veil, received the Westerners International's Living Legends Award. Fred, a past Sheriff, was the founder of our annual Western History Symposium, a founding member of the Territorial Times magazines and a contributor to the AZ History Convention. For seven years he was the Director of the Sharlot Hall Museum. Fred Veil-certainly a Living Legend!

Our thanks to Calamity Jane (Susann Hutchison) for agreeing to be our speaker when scheduled speaker, Big Nose Kate (Linda Walls) became ill on the day of our April meeting. Calamity-you saved the day (or evening!).

Through extensive research, Corral member and author, Brad Courtney, has discovered the location of the house where Doc Holliday lived when he stayed in Prescott. Although the house is no longer there, a marker will be placed in that area. Our Posse voted to donate to Brad's project which will have an unveiling event on August 14th. More to come...

Our August 3rd Western History Symposium is nearing. The following are our speakers and topics:

Kelly Cordes-local historian, speaking on the Founding Fathers of Prescott

Lisa Schnebly Heidinger-presenting about her great-grandmother Sedona Schnebly

Roger Naylor-Arizona travel writer presenting history and information on Arizona's state parks

Doug Hocking-Western author talking about Southwest train robberies

Tom Collins-local historian sharing the tale of an early Prescott scandal which caused the downfall of a local attorney

*A reminder...the staff at the Centennial Center needs until 5:00 to prepare for our dinner meetings. We're glad you're in a hurry to see fellow Corral members but the doors will remain closed until 5:00. Thank you for understanding! *

Don't miss our June 6th presentation when Corral member, Bob Harner, speaks about 18th and 19th century patent medicines-something for whatever ails you!

Happy Trails to you until we meet in June!
