“Yavapai County Ranch History, Cowboy Poems and Music

Presenter: Joe Konkel

Joe will present stories and photographs of pioneer, and more recent, ranching families of Yavapai County. He will also sing a couple cowboy songs and recite a poem or two. Monk Maxwell, now in his 80's and a long-time working cowboy and rancher, will join us to share his personal stories about cowboying.

Joe has coordinated the Ranch History sessions for the Arizona Cowboy Poets Gathering in Prescott for 10 years which has allowed him to become very familiar with these stories.

Prescott Corral News & Announcements

A Message from Our Sheriff

Greetings,

In March, we have a great program. Three great performers, Joe Konkel, and Monk and Wanda Maxwell. We are going to hear about Yavapai Ranch histories, the cowboy way of life in the modern age and poems and songs. What a special time we will have.

I am grateful to all our speakers. How marvelous it is to learn Arizona and western history in such a beautiful setting. To me, it is magical to reflect on Prescott one hundred and fifty years ago and to have knowledgeable people talk to us about that time. I am so glad to be a member of Westerners and enjoy these programs each month.

We are having a record number of reservations for our dinners. I recommend you mail your reservation form with your check early to be assured a seat.

March is our first month of 1880's dressing. Are you getting your outfit ready? We are having two months of 1880's style dressing this year, the second will be in the fall. I think this will be great fun! I hope most of you will choose to participate in dressing up in the 1880's style so look to your closet or your sewing skills. I also encourage the gentlemen to participate, although I must admit it is easier for them!

I'll see you on March 6th!
